BWCI 40th Anniversary Bursaries

We are delighted to announce the recipients of BWCI's 2019 student bursary awards. This year we are awarding a second bursary as part of our 40th Anniversary celebrations.

Our 2019 bursaries have been awarded to mathematicians Billy Ogier and Jean-Luc Parker.

Billy, a former Elizabeth College student, achieved an impressive clean sweep of A*s in his A levels in Mathematics, Further Mathematics and Chemistry. He will be heading off to study Mathematics at the University of Durham.

Jean-Luc is in the final year of his Mathematics degree at the University of Exeter, having studied for his A levels in Mathematics, Further Mathematics and Economics at the Guernsey Grammar School and Sixth Form Centre.

BWCI's Senior HR Manager, Alison Rimington said: "We were delighted to receive such a high standard of application for our bursaries and we look forward to supporting both Billy and Jean Luc in their future studies, as well as providing them with some practical experience in a working environment".
